TERMS OF SERVICE

EFFECTIVE DATE: 8 OCTOBER 2026

Odds Ace Australia is an independent wagering-market analytics and information service for adults in Australia (18+ only): it alerts you when Australian bookmakers' prices haven't caught up with the overseas market, reports stadium weather, and never takes bets or promises results.

1. About these Terms

These Terms cover the Odds Ace Australia website and alerts (the Service). Odds Ace Australia ("Odds Ace") is run by Tony Chalhoub, ABN 38 722 496 289, 52 Hargreaves Street, Huntingdale VIC 3166 ("we", "us"), and your contract is with us. You agree to these Terms when you subscribe. Whop processes payments under its own terms, which don't reduce your rights against us. If you don't agree, please don't use the Service.

2. Who can use Odds Ace

- You must be 18 or over.
- You must live in Australia. Odds Ace isn't offered anywhere else.
- If you're registered with BetStop or trying to stop gambling, we suggest you don't subscribe. If you already have, cancel your membership in your Whop account (clause 5), and leave the Odds Ace channel in Telegram to stop the alerts straight away.

3. What Odds Ace is, and isn't

- Odds Ace compares prices offered by bookmakers licensed in Australia on NFL, NBA, NHL, MLB, US college football and US college basketball with prices in larger overseas betting markets, and alerts you when an Australian price hasn't caught up. For open-air NFL and MLB games, it also reports stadium weather and how confident the forecast is.
- Odds Ace is an independent wagering-market analytics and information service. We are not a bookmaker or wagering service, and we don't act for any bookmaker. We don't accept bets, hold money, place bets for you or manage betting accounts.
- Nothing we send is a recommendation to bet, or betting, financial or other professional advice. Whether you bet, how much and with whom is your decision.
- The only bookmakers we name or link to are licensed in Australia. The overseas market price is a reference figure; we don't name or link to the overseas bookmakers behind it.
- Odds Ace is independent. We aren't affiliated with, endorsed by or paid by any bookmaker, and we don't take commissions, referral fees or other payments from bookmakers. Bookmaker prices are shown for market comparison and analysis. If we ever have a paid relationship with a bookmaker, we'll say so clearly wherever it applies.

4. No guaranteed outcomes

- Odds move quickly. Alerts are time-sensitive, and a price we show may have changed or gone by the time you see it.
- Bookmakers set their own rules. They can change or withdraw prices, limit or close accounts, and void bets, even after accepting them, including bets at prices they treat as an obvious error.
- Weather forecasts are uncertain, especially more than 24 hours before a game. We hold back readings, such as wind direction, when the forecast can't support them.
- A price that compares well with the overseas market does not mean a bet will win or that you will make money. Past results don't predict future results. You can lose money betting.

- This clause does not limit your rights under clause 10.

5. Subscriptions, payment and the free trial

- 3-day free trial: your first 3 days are free. Cancel before the trial ends and you won't be charged; otherwise your first monthly payment is taken when it ends. One free trial per person.
- Price: if you join before 1 January 2027, you pay the launch price of A$79 a month, including GST, for as long as that membership continues. If you join on or after 1 January 2027, including joining again after a membership has ended, you pay the standard price of A$99 a month, including GST. Payments are charged in advance to your card through Whop, starting when your free trial ends.
- Renewal: your plan renews every month until you cancel. You cancel online in your Whop account, at any time (whop.com, then Profile, Orders, Odds Ace and Cancel membership); we don't cancel memberships by email. Access continues until the end of the month you've paid for.
- Minimum term: none.
- Refunds: each payment covers a month, and we don't refund part months. The exceptions: we refund the unused part of a paid month if we end your subscription when you're not at fault or for a breach that isn't serious (clause 7), or if you cancel because of a change under clause 12; and whenever the Australian Consumer Law requires it (see clause 10).
- Price changes: if you joined before 1 January 2027, your A$79 launch price won't go up while that membership continues. For any other price change, we'll email you at least 30 days before it applies, and you can cancel before then.
- Tax invoices: email us and we'll send you a tax invoice for any payment.
- We never see or store your full card number. Our payment processor handles card details.

6. Emails and alerts

- You'll receive the emails and alerts you signed up for. Paid alerts are sent through Telegram. We only send marketing emails with your consent.
- You can pause alerts any time by muting the channel in Telegram. To stop them, cancel your membership as set out in clause 5: no more payments are taken, and you're taken out of the channel at the end of your free trial or paid month. To stop them straight away, leave the channel in Telegram too.
- Every marketing email has an unsubscribe link. We action unsubscribes promptly, and within 5 business days at the latest.
- While you have a paid plan we may still send service emails, such as receipts and account notices.
- Telegram, email providers and your device can delay or filter messages, so we can't guarantee exactly when an alert reaches you.

7. Acceptable use

The Service is for your personal use. You must not:

- forward, republish, resell or share paid alerts (sharing a link to our public pages is fine)
- scrape, copy in bulk or automate access to the Service
- use the Service to break the law or to defraud anyone
- get around our age or location limits.

If we reasonably believe you've broken these rules, we'll tell you and give you a chance to respond before we suspend or close your account, unless the breach is serious (for example, reselling alerts). If we close your account for a breach that isn't serious, we'll refund the unused part of your paid month.

8. Our content and third-party data

- We own or license the content of the Service. You may use paid alerts for your personal use while you're a subscriber. Our public pages, such as this website and our free results channel, are open to anyone.
- Some data comes from others: odds from the bookmakers' own websites and public odds-comparison sites; weather data from Open-Meteo.com (CC BY 4.0); stadium map data © OpenStreetMap contributors. Third-party data can be wrong or unavailable.

- Links to other sites, including bookmakers, are for convenience. We don't control those sites.

9. Responsible gambling

- We won't offer inducements to gamble, such as bonus bets or deposit offers.
- We won't suggest betting is a way to make money or fix money problems.
- We won't market to anyone under 18, or to anyone who tells us they've self-excluded.
- We don't publish bookmaker advertising, sponsored content, affiliate links or bookmaker promotions.
- Gambling can be harmful. Free, confidential help: Gambling Help Online, 1800 858 858 or gamblinghelponline.org.au. You can exclude yourself from all licensed Australian online and phone betting at BetStop (betstop.gov.au).

10. Your rights under the Australian Consumer Law

Our services come with guarantees that can't be excluded under the Australian Consumer Law. If there's a major failure with the Service, you can cancel and get a refund for the unused part, or compensation for its reduced value. If a failure isn't major, we'll fix it within a reasonable time; if we don't, you can cancel and get a refund for the unused part. You're also entitled to be compensated for any other reasonably foreseeable loss or damage. Nothing in these Terms takes away those rights.

11. Liability

Subject to clause 10, and to the extent the law allows:

- you decide whether, how much and where to bet, so we aren't responsible for the result of any bet or for betting losses
- we aren't responsible for what bookmakers do, or for losses caused by errors in third-party data or by delays outside our control
- otherwise, our total liability to you is limited to the fees you paid us in the 12 months before the claim.

12. Changes to the Service and these Terms

We may add or remove sports or features. If a change would materially reduce the Service, we'll tell you first where we can, and you can cancel and get a refund for the unused part of your paid month. If we make a material change to these Terms, we'll email you at least 30 days before it takes effect. If you don't agree, you can cancel and we'll refund any unused prepaid fees.

13. Ending the Service

You can cancel at any time. We can end your subscription on 30 days' email notice and refund any unused prepaid fees. We can end it immediately if you seriously breach these Terms. We won't end a launch-price membership so that we can charge a higher price.

14. Privacy

Our Privacy Policy explains how we handle your personal information.

15. Governing law

These Terms are governed by the laws of Victoria, Australia. This doesn't take away any rights you have under the consumer laws of the state or territory where you live.

16. Contact and complaints

Email info@oddsaceaustralia.com or write to 52 Hargreaves Street, Huntingdale VIC 3166. If something has gone wrong, tell us: we'll reply within one business day and aim to sort it out within 14 days. If you're not happy with the outcome, you can contact the consumer protection agency in your state or territory, such as Consumer Affairs Victoria.

18+ only. Odds Ace is an independent wagering-market analytics service, not a bookmaker. It's information, not betting advice.
